WILL HELP THE TICKET

Taft Thinks Hughes Nomination Will Help Party—Speech to Negroes. CINCINNATI, O., September 15.—The gratification of Candidate William H. Taft on the nomination of Governor Hughes was expressed in a telegram he sent to the Governor congratulating him on his "well deserved nomination."

He added: "It not only makes the State of New York safe in November, but greatly strengthens the national ticket in every State in the Union."

"This, the fifty-first anniversary of Mr. Taft's birth, proved to be his busiest day. He delivered a non-political address to-night to an audience of ministers composing the Ohio Conference of the African Methodist Episcopal Church, the first speech of his campaign to negroes. Earlier in the day Mr. Taft met a small delegation from Greenfield, Ind.

In his address to-night to the negroes, he said he was there for the purpose of expressing his sympathy with the negro race in its struggle for better things.

"A sympathy," he said, "which I have had from the time I was a small boy for I inherited it from my father, Alphonso Taft, than whom the colored race never had a better friend."

The education he was most proud of by the negro race, he said, was primarily the rudiments of knowledge combined with industrial training. This should be supplemented by higher education for a more limited number to furnish ministers, doctors, teachers and lawyers.

He said he had not always been in favor of higher education for members of the negro race, "but after a full consideration of the needs of the race, I am convinced that I was in error."

On the subject of race prejudice and mob violence, Mr. Taft said:

"I don't know that the race bitterness is any stronger and more rampant than it ever was. For a long time it seems to be altogether abated, and then there will be an outbreak, a mob will be formed, developing the most fiendish cruelty imaginable to read accounts of things of this sort without having one's blood boil with indignation that there can reside in the human breast such savage and beastly impulses."

"The best remedy and the necessary one is an improvement in the administration of our criminal laws and the holding to strict account the officers of the law who do not use all possible means to prevent and suppress such outbreaks."

"I cannot too strongly condemn the attitude of these public men, who, in their discussions of the negro question, use language calculated to arouse in the ignorant a contempt for the negro race and an altogether unfriendly attitude toward it. I believe sincerely that all through the South a very much better feeling is growing among many classes of citizens toward the negro."

Saying he realized the heart throbs of the negro, he added:

"While the negro is the ward of the nation, in the sense that the nation brought him here against his will, and must now deal with the problems that his presence presents, and solve them, justly, fairly and creditably, he is not thereby relieved of the burden of responsibility that he must assume to win his way in the community by industry and the honest means which he has at his disposal."

Mr. Taft's speech was warmly received.

SPRY FOR GOVERNOR

He Is Nominated by the Republicans of Utah.

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, September 15.—The Republican State Convention today nominated a complete State ticket, including Congressmen, and adopted a platform which warmly indorses the administration of President Roosevelt and the nomination of William E. Spry, Salt Lake, was nominated for Governor, and Joseph Howell was nominated for Congress. The platform indorses the proposition for a national board of health, under Federal supervision; favors postal savings banks, a greater navy, a national bureau of mines and the good roads movement.

which produced such results are not far to seek, and as they are essentially connected with the administration of our public affairs the opportunity has come for a great historic party to take its rightful place in directing our national and State policies.

"The Democratic party has stood for State rights without seeking to deny to the Federal government those powers which under the Constitution were conceded to it. It is united in favor of economy in public expenditures and currency reform; it is committed to a just revision of tariff duties, and that without delay; it stands for the reasonable regulation of corporations, and the eradication of corporate abuses; it is opposed alike to materialism and socialism; it favors the compulsory publication of campaign contributions; it demands from all corporations public obedience to law and a just recognition of the rights of the people. Upon these great issues the party is united."

Judge O'Brien discussed the Democratic presidential candidate, saying:

"The great commoner has been chosen to lead the Democratic host in the coming struggle against centralization of power, extravagance and special privilege. Unlike his opponent, whose principal support came from those who have profited by the tariff, and from Federal office-holders interested by the President, who was determined to choose his own successor, William Jennings Bryan was selected as our standard-bearer for no other reason than because the people themselves wanted and insisted upon having him. He was nominated for the presidency upon a platform which he has pledged himself to support, in respect both to what it contains and to what by omission it reflects, adopted with substantial unanimity by the accredited representatives of our party at the national convention; and it now becomes the duty of every man who calls himself a Democrat to support the national ticket with earnestness and enthusiasm."

Addressing himself then to the immediate task before the convention, he said:

"If we do not mistake the temper of the New York electorate, they are weary of harangue, rhetoric and ineffective. They want an equal enforcement of the laws and the punishment of lawbreakers, but they do not approve of vicious sacrifice. They want the public protected against monopolies, but they want such protection through the operation of general laws, independent entirely of the caprice of any potentate or bureaucrat. They want a square deal, but in determining what deals are square and what criminal, they want the law to furnish the touchstone, not the caprice of any individual or board condemning or acquitting for personal or political reasons. The people hate indulgences as they hate unfairness and creditably, they want less legislation on new and untried lines and of doubtful constitutionality, and less interference with personal and economic liberty."

Hughes as a ruler.

"It would have been difficult for the Republican party to have chosen a candidate for Governor whose personality would have presented in so plain a relief the essential distinction between the Republican and the Democratic theories of government. We are indignant by the Republican press that the Governor reluctantly consented to accept a renomination, because he considered that his work of reform was not yet finished. The Governor apparently considers it wholly unnecessary to consult the people in advance about his legislative plans. He even seems to consider it unnecessary to consult his party associates about these plans. His mental attitude towards the voters is that of a ruler who thinks that he knows better what is good for them than they do themselves, and, therefore, declines to consult them, because if they knew in advance of the position he has taken, he intended to do for them, they might be foolish enough to disapprove of the program, and by electing his opponent defeat it."

"The example of personal government at the Federal Capitol has been closely followed at the State Capitol, and the vital question in this election, by national and State, is whether the people want to govern themselves or to be governed by public servants, in violation of the great doctrine of the good things of power, which is the corner-stone of American political life."

Soon Adjourned.

State Chairman W. J. O'Brien called the convention to order and introduced Mr. O'Brien. When the latter had concluded, there was a call of the roll, the noting of contests, the adoption of resolutions governing the appointment of committees and then the convention adjourned until 10 o'clock to-morrow.

Confess as to Nominée.

Best Medicine

Says a Doubting Thomas.

"I Am Convinced That Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey is the Best Medicine I Have Ever Taken. I Say This with Due Deliberation After the Use of Two Bottles."—Chas. E. Getchell, Webb's Mills, Maine.

Mr. Getchell, like thousands of others who have been benefited by the use of Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey, cannot say too much in praise of this, the world's greatest medicine. On November 18, 1907, Mr. Getchell wrote as follows:

"After due deliberation, having used two bottles of Duffy's Malt Whiskey, I am convinced that it is the best medicine that I have ever taken. At first I was doubtful, but I doubt no more, for I can truly say to you and to the world that its use has improved my health so much I feel like a new man. For the past five years I have been able to work but little, with pains in my kidneys and bladder. I suffered continually, and until I began to take your Malt Whiskey I got no relief, but since then I have been growing better every day. You cannot imagine how happy I am to be able once more to walk three or four miles without any of the old trouble, and I sincerely thank you for calling my attention to your valuable medicine, and be assured I shall always keep it in the house. If any one wishes to write me concerning it I shall be glad to answer."

Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey is an absolutely pure distillation of malted grain, great care being used to have every kernel thoroughly malted, thus destroying the germ and producing a predigested liquid food in the form of a malt essence, which is the most effective tonic-stimulant and invigorator known to science; softened by warmth and moisture, its palatability and freedom from injurious substances render it so that it can be retained by the most sensitive stomach.

If weak and rundown, take a teaspoonful four times a day in half a glass of milk or water.

Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey is sold throughout the world by druggists, grocers and dealers, or shipped direct for $1.00 a large bottle.

my record as he goes about the public questions which he has attempted to solve by the use of his own power, changeable and of abandoning issues."

Mr. Bryan said he has been a tariff reformer for twenty-eight years; has advocated the election of Senators by the people for twelve years; and has been favoring an income tax for fourteen years, and Mr. Taft is only now coming around to his position on these questions. He continued:

"I said in 1898 that the Philippines ought to have their independence. Mr. Taft has this year admitted that the people must ultimately have independence. I have taken up my position, and also discussed the Philippine question in this campaign, and called attention to the fact that Mr. Taft made a mistake of $114,000,000 in his estimate of the cost of imperialism."

"On the railroad question he has expressed himself as strongly as I have. He has said, and the President also has said, that government ownership will follow if the railroads present regulation. I have said the same thing. I do not desire government ownership. I hope that the railroads will permit regulation. Our position is that if the railroads have more faith than I have in the willingness of the railroads to be regulated."

"He spends some time on the money question. The money question has been taken out of politics because the unexpected discoveries of gold have given the increase which was demanded by the Republican party as well as by the Democratic party."

In these words William J. Bryan, an interview to-day, issued another challenge to Mr. Taft in replying to Mr. Taft's utterances printed this morning. Continuing, he said:

Instead of defining his position on public questions Mr. Taft is inquiring about my record, and in his inquiry he shows that he knows as little about

ASK RECEIVER FOR BIG CANNING CO.

CHICAGO, ILL., September 15.—A bill was filed in the Superior Court in this city to-day, asking that a receiver be appointed for the property in Illinois of the E. McIlhenny Canning and Manufacturing Company, a $10,000,000 corporation, engaged in the manufacture of tobacco sauce and in the oyster trade. The bill was brought by William C. Titcomb, former Western manager for the company. He charged that the company is insolvent and that it owes him $25,000 for salary and other accounts. The declaration in the case sets forth that the company is not able to pay the interest on an indebtedness of $800,000, which is secured by $1,000,000 5 per cent. bonds.

A restraining order is asked also to prevent the removal of goods valued at more than $100,000 said to be stored in Chicago.

The company is incorporated under the laws of Maine and Louisiana. Its headquarters are in New York, New Orleans and Chicago. It is declared in the bill for a receiver that the real headquarters until January 1, 1908, were on Avery Island in the Gulf of Mexico, and that the island is one of the chief assets of the company.

That was about all the Board had to do, as none of the committees had reported any new business.

But Mr. Broadbent suggested just before adjournment that the sum of $500 be appropriated for street improvements, when Mr. Abbott said that if the city was annexed to Richmond there would be no necessity for asking for such an appropriation. The request was not pushed, but the Board adjourned with the feeling that some money was needed for street improvements, and it is likely that when it meets next Mr. Broadbent will renew his motion.

Joint Session of Council. The City Council will meet in joint session to-morrow night for the purpose of electing a City Engineer. Two branches of Council have amended the ordinance stipulating that none but voters and citizens could hold office, so far as the City Engineer is concerned, and at the meeting night it is quite likely that a City Engineer will be chosen.

Sergeant From Newport News. Sergeant Wright returned from Newport News yesterday morning, bringing with him the negro, Willie Jackson. In the Mayor's Court he pleaded guilty of breaking into the cleaning and pressing establishment at Twelfth and Hull Streets several nights ago. He was sent on to the grand jury with his pal, Mason.

Green Soon. The Chesterfield Circuit Court will meet on Friday to try the negro, Green, who is alleged to have assaulted a young girl last week. This arrangement was effected by "Squire Jacob, who felt that if the negro is not tried early, there would be trouble in Chesterfield. Judge Watson will be on hand to hear the case at the specified time."

Gave Birthday Party. Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Neisler, of No. 125 West Ninth Street, entertained Monday night from 8 to 11:30 in honor of the sixteenth birthday of their daughter, Louise. Every one was most agreeably entertained, and left with many good wishes for the health and happiness of their young hostess. Those present were: Misses Rosa and Regina Beque, Lenora, Theresa and Marie Antone, Floeste McGrudder, Nell Delrick, Nellie Lucas, Mabel Walton, Rose Taylor, Mary and Louise Neisler, Messrs. R. H.
